7. The licence does not extend to any other information, property or rights owned by IT Governance. Other than the Material, no licence is granted to reproduce, distribute or sell any other of IT Governance’s copyrighted materials.
8. It is understood that the Material will become part of your ISMS documentation, may be distributed and published as part of the development, deployment and maintenance of your ISMS, and that your ISMS may also contain information from other sources.
9. You may freely reproduce, amend, alter and distribute the Material within the Organization in both printed and electronically retrievable forms and may make one copy for backup purposes only.

10. You agree to mark each reproduction of the Material, or any derivation of the Material, as follows: ‘This document contains material that is distributed under licence from IT Governance Ltd. You agree that you will not make the Material available to any other individual or organization that is external to the Organization and that you will promptly notify IT Governance of any infringements of this licence or any unauthorized reproduction or distribution of the Material which may come to your attention. You acknowledge that any failure to comply with this clause will constitute a material breach of this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted as restricting or preventing you from enforcing your own copyrights.
13. You agree to hold IT Governance harmless, and defend and indemnify IT Governance against any and all claims of liability of any sort arising out of the use of the Material and against all and costs (including all legal and related costs) arising out any breach of the Agreement by You.
14. This Agreement and all rights and duties herein are personal to You and are not assignable (other than in the course of corporate re-organization), in whole or in part, without the prior written agreement of IT Governance.
15. This Agreement is the entire agreement between You and IT Governance and You agree that it will be subject to the laws of England and that any matter arising out of this agreement will be subject to the jurisdiction of the English courts only.
